Bird in Hand, Adelaide Hills

Over the past two decades Bird in Hand has grown from a small family-owned business into a globally renowned brand with a portfolio of premium cool climate wines enjoyed across Australia and the world. Named after the site of a goldmine operating in the late 1800s, Bird in Hand is situated on Bird in Hand road in Woodside in the Adelaide Hills. In 1997, founder Andrew Nugent happened upon the site in this emerging wine region, which was then a rundown dairy farm.

The passionate wine making team is led by Chief Winemaker, Kym Milne MW. Kym has been named 'Winemaker of the Year' two years running by Winestate magazine, acknowledgement of his expertise in creating a diverse range of wines, including the much-loved Sparkling Pinot Noir and Pinot Rosé.
